

Education Loan Asset-Backed Trust I Announces Tender Offer for Some of its Student Loan Asset-Backed Auction Rate Notes

ALEXANDRIA, VA, May 30, 2008 – Education Loan Asset-Backed Trust I, a Delaware statutory trust (“ELAB”), today announced that it has commenced a tender offer to purchase some of its outstanding Auction Rate Student Loan Asset-Backed Notes, Senior Series 2003-1A and 2003-2A for aggregate cash consideration not to exceed $22,000,000.

The offer expires at 5 p.m. (Eastern Time) on June 27, 2008, unless it is extended or earlier terminated. Tenders of the auction rate notes may be made at any time prior to the expiration of the tender offer.

Validly tendered auction rate notes will be accepted for payment subject to, and at prices determined pursuant to an auction process. Under the auction process, each registered owner of auction rate notes desiring to tender any of its auction rate notes must, prior to the expiration of the tender offer, specify the price or prices (in integral multiples of $100), not to exceed $45,000 (90% of the par value), for each $50,000 principal amount of auction rate notes, at which such owner is willing to sell its notes to ELAB and the aggregate principal amount of auction rate notes (in integral multiples of $50,000) it is willing to sell at each such price. Promptly following the expiration of the tender offer, auction rate notes validly tendered at the lowest price will be accepted first and will continue to be accepted at the related price in ascending order of such prices. ELAB will only purchase the maximum principal amount of auction rate notes that may be accepted without causing the aggregate amount to be paid for such auction rate notes to exceed $22,000,000.

If validly tendered auction rate notes are accepted for payment in accordance with the auction process, ELAB will pay a total cash consideration for each $50,000 principal amount equal to the price at which such auction rate notes were accepted for payment plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon from the last applicable distribution date to, but not including, the settlement date, which is expected to be the third New York City business day following the expiration of the offer.

The terms and conditions of the offer are set forth in the offer to purchase for the auction rate notes, dated May 30, 2008. This press release is not an offer to purchase, a solicitation of an offer to purchase or a solicitation of an offer to sell any of the auction rate notes. The offer may only be made pursuant to the terms of the offer to purchase. The offer to purchase contains important information that should be read carefully in its entirety before any decision is made to tender or not tender auction rate notes pursuant to the offer.
